MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL.

VOLUME VIII.—NEW SERIES. MILWAUKEE, TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 29, 1852. WHOLE NUMBER 2341.

Milwaukee Daily Sentinel.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING, (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED,) BY

RUFUS KING & CO.,

AT THE OFFICE,
Nos. 205 & 207 EAST WATER STREET,
CORNER OF WISCONSIN STREET,
IN THE SECOND, THIRD, AND FOURTH STORIES OF LUDINGTON'S NEW BRICK BLOCK.

TERMS:

THE DAILY SENTINEL will be left at the door of City Subscribers at Six Dollars a year, payable Quarterly or 50 Cents a Month; or, 12½ Cents a Week, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

TRI-WEEKLY SENTINEL—Three Dollars a year, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE, AND THE PAPER DISCONTINUED WHEN THE PERIOD FOR WHICH IT IS PAID, EXPIRES.

WEEKLY PAPER—Two Dollars a year, INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE, AND THE PAPER DISCONTINUED, WHEN THE PERIOD FOR WHICH IT IS PAID EXPIRES. To CLUBS of Ten or More, TO ONE ADDRESS, the Weekly will be sent for ONE DOLLAR A COPY.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS.

IN ORDER that there may be no misunderstanding in relation to Advertising, we here state the rates determined upon in our daily papers, from Jan. 1st, 1851:

1 square (per year)		$12 00	1 square, 2 weeks,		$2 75
1 " 9 months,		10 50	1 " 1 "		1 50
1 " 6 "		8 00	1 " 5 times,		1 38
1 " 3 "		6 00	1 " 4 "		1 25
1 " 2 "		5 00	1 " 3 days,		1 00
1 " 6 weeks,		4 50	1 " 2 "		0 75
1 " 1 month,		4 00	1 " 1 "		0 50
1 " 3 weeks,		3 50

Twelve lines Nonpareil (or less) make a square. Leaded Advertisements, "after reading matter," 50 per cent. advance on the above rates.

One sqr. for a year, with a change once a week, $25; 2 sqrs. $50; 1 sqr. with a change every day, $50; 2 sqrs. $100; 3 sqrs. with four changes a year, $25: (DAILY PAPER NOT INCLUDED.) No paper will be discontinued (unless at the discretion of the proprietors) until all arrearages are paid.

Persons wishing to discontinue their yearly or casual advertising, must give notice at the Counting Room. All yearly advertisers discontinuing their advertising before the year is out, will be charged at the above rates.

The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to their own immediate business, and all advertisements for the benefit of other persons, or on other business, must be paid for at the usual rates.

Communications, the effect of which is to promote private interests, to be paid for at the rate of 50 Cents per square for a single insertion.

In all cases where advertisements are sent in, marked "DAILY AND WEEKLY," they will be charged 50 Cents per square for the first insertion, and 25 Cents for each subsequent insertion in the Weekly.

Advertisements not accompanied with written directions, will be inserted one month, and charged accordingly.

The proprietors of the Eckford Line would particularly call the attention of the Merchants of Wisconsin, Illinois, and other Western and South-western States to the superior facilities of their line for transportation to, and from, the ports on the Upper Lakes. The above line of Steamboats runs direct to our Dock, at Buffalo, and all goods contracted by this line for the Upper Lakes will be shipped (unless otherwise ordered or contracted) by Steamboats, (not Propellers) with but one, or possibly two exceptions. The Eckford is the only Line not interested in, or committed to, a Propeller Upper Lake Line; and in endeavoring to sustain a line of Steamboats on that route, the Proprietors hope to receive the support and patronage of the Merchants of the Western States, when interest demands the continuance of a line of such a class of Boats. Boats leave New York and Buffalo daily.

Refer to L. J. Higby, Thomas P. Williams, and Kellogg, Strong & Co., Milwaukee.

THE undersigned would respectfully solicit the attention of dealers in and consumers of Coal in Milwaukee to our Card, as above. The Bolivar Coal is unquestionably superior to any other mined in Ohio, for Grate, Blacksmithing, Machinery, or Domestic purposes; and for Steam purposes, is superior to any except Briar Hill. It is peculiarly well adapted to Shipping, as its extreme hardness renders it capable of bearing any amount of handling, without waste. It can be afforded considerably cheaper than Brier Hill, and for most purposes, is better.

It is our wish to introduce the article, and we respectfully solicit orders, confident that a trial is only necessary to convince any of the truth of the above assertion.

INSURANCE OFFICES.

EMPIRE
INSURANCE COMPANY,
Union Springs, N. Y.

CAPITAL.......................$100,000.

THE Directors of the Empire Insurance Company feel confident that the plan of Insurance adopted by them will meet with a hearty response from a discerning public. Our Charter and By-Laws require that the applications received shall be divided into two or more classes. Dwelling Houses, and property of similar hazard, only, can be insured in the First Class, excluding Taverns, Work-shops, School-houses, Seminaries, Churches, and other kinds of hazardous property, usually taken in the so-called "Farmers' Companies," or "Farmers' Departments." This will render the EMPIRE emphatically a "FARMERS' COMPANY."

They submit for the judgment of their fellow citizens the following summary of their plan of operations:

1. Policies will be divided into distinct Classes, the funds of each class being kept separate, and each paying its own losses. The notes given in one Class are not liable for losses happening in the other.

2. Any applicant may, at his option, pay a definite sum in full for his insurance, in lieu of giving his note.

3. The First Class to consist of dwelling houses and other farm buildings and personal property therein. Not more than two-thirds of the value of any building to be insured; but the personal property therein may be insured to its cash value.

4. The Second Class to consist of Churches, School-houses, Seminary buildings, Work-shops, Taverns, Stores, Mills propelled by water-power, &c., and personal property therein.

5. Not more than $3000 will be taken in one risk.

6. Steam Mills of all kinds, Distilleries, Cotton and Woolen Factories, Powder and Oil Mills, Furnaces, Machine Shops, and other extra hazardous property will not be taken in this company.

7. This Company will hold itself responsible for the correctness of all surveys and other official acts of its authorized agents, thus ending all cavil as to the technical correctness of surveys, and the consequent liability of the Company.

8. Any policy-holder may at pleasure withdraw from the Company by paying his share of the losses up to the time of such withdrawal.

9. This Company will adjust all claims with promptness and liberality, and if at any time a difference shall arise between the parties, the same may be settled by a mutual reference in the county where the loss shall have occurred.

10. Additional Stoves may be set up, or moved from one room to another, without giving notice to the Company; also, such repairs as do not increase the hazard of the property, need not be notified.

11. This Company will pay losses caused by lightning, whether the buildings are burned or otherwise damaged.

12. Should any more money be collected than sufficient to keep the company in a sound condition, it will be returned to the policy holders in proportion as each shall have paid in.

The Directors, in soliciting patronage for the Empire Insurance Company, do so in the firm conviction that the plan will be found as CHEAP and SAFE as any company can be made. In arranging their Rates of Hazard, and the kinds of property to be insured in each class, they have sought to secure sufficient cash premiums to meet all losses; laying by the small notes taken as a Reserve Fund, which shall render the Company perfectly safe against all contingencies.

For a more definite and full view of their plan of operations, they respectfully invite an examination of their Rates of Hazard and Classification of Property to be insured.

NEW YORK
MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION,
Union Springs, N. Y.

THIS Association is formed for the mutual relief of its members in case of sickness or accident. A careful examination of its principles, and its beneficent objects, is respectfully solicited. The character and standing of the Board of Directors is a guaranty that the money received will be safely preserved, and faithfully devoted to the objects proposed. The progress of HEALTH INSURANCE, within the past few years, in localities where its principles have been understood, and its beneficent results practically seen and felt, is unparalleled.

Men are literally binding themselves together to bear one another's burdens. No kind of Insurance can be so generally useful as that of Health; for most people are dependent upon it as the capital which enables them to procure the means of livelihood. Hence, when by disease or accident this is gone, all is gone; and either an unpleasant dependence on friends, or poverty and pauperism, is the consequence. It is not presumed that accident or the ravages of disease can be prevented; but by a wise forethought, a fountain may be provided, which, when the hand of affliction does come, will soften its asperities, and secure a comfortable support for yourself or family.

Conditions of Membership:

A CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP will be forwarded on payment of $1,50 Admission Fee, and the first annual deposit mentioned below. Each member will be entitled to a Weekly Benefit during the time disabled by sickness or accident from attending to his ordinary business or occupation. Persons from 14 to 60 years of age, of ordinary health and good habits, may become members on the following conditions:

$2 per year, will draw $2 per week.
$3 " " $3 "
$4 " " $4 "
$5 " " $5 "

Persons over 50 years of age—

Nett Assets Jan. 31, 1852,		$1,427,625 56

All the profits are divided among the Insured, and on Policies for the Whole of Life, will be made available in part payment of Premiums, after the dividend of 1853.

The Premium is paid in Cash annually, or may, if desired, be paid semi-annually, or quarterly, by adding interest to the deferred payments. The CASH principle adopted by this Company, secures to the parties for whose protection insurance may be effected, the WHOLE of the benefits, without subjecting them to the heavy drawback of accumulated premium notes.

Persons may effect insurance upon their lives, or upon the lives of others. Married women can insure the lives of their husbands, for their own benefit and for the protection of their children.

Pamphlets explanatory of the principles of Life Insurance, and illustrative of its advantages, may be had, with form of application, and rates of premium, at the office of the Company, No. 35 Wall street, or from any of its Agents.

Capital over $165,000—in Cash and Premium Notes

THIS Company offers unrivalled facilities for the insurance of Buildings and Personal Property against fire. The advantages offered, are security beyond the reach of circumstances, as the real estate insured is by law bound for the assessment made to cover losses beyond the power of evasion. Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one-third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomparable ease with which losses are settled. During the last five years, this Company have issued 2600 Policies, and made but three assessments at a cost to the property insured, not exceeding two mills on the dollar. Its business is principally confined to this State.

THE PLATFORM.

We publish to-day in a corrected form, the "Platform" as passed at Baltimore. A few words with regard to it may not be out of place.

The language of the preamble is plain and unassuming, stating what the Whig party claims for itself, without charging that citizens, gathered under other political names, do not love and labor for their country, and believe in the intelligence of the people.

The first declaration of opinion, on the subject of the powers of government, is universal in its application to citizens of the United States. It is what they all believe, without exception, so far as we know.

The second is like the first,—and it may be said of both, that but for the fact that it seemed proper for the Convention to make their declarations complete, there was little necessity of making a parade of principles so clearly entertained by us all.

The third, as to intervention, is scarcely satisfactory to us, and not much better than the Democratic "plank," of the same general tenor. It expresses truly, the warm sympathy felt by the Whig party for those who are struggling for freedom, everywhere and anywhere in the world. It declares the right principle, when it says that our duty and our mission is to teach republicanism by example, and not by brute force. It might have gone further, and declared, for not the Whig party only, but for men of every party, a resolution to defend their principles whenever it shall be necessary, but we do not know that there existed any necessity of making such a declaration at present. Whenever leagued absolutism shall attempt to crush liberty among us, no party convention will be needed to express the sentiment of the people.

The fourth declaration is well enough, but nothing distinctive about it. Of course, in a popular government, the people, who are supposed to make the laws, should obey them, or submit to their penalties. If the laws are bad, they must see that they are made better, in the constitutional method.

As to the fifth declaration, it expresses our sentiments generally. If, however, it is meant by conducting Government "upon principles of the strictest economy," that there should be such cautious narrowness as to lose sight of, and leave out of question, the beneficent purposes for which our popular government exists, we do not agree with it. And we say frankly that the whole resolution is altogether too cautious and calculating. We believe in PROTECTION TO HOME INDUSTRY. It is to be given by the methods pointed out in the declaration, to be sure, but we would have been better pleased, and so would the whole whig party, North and South, to see this distinctive feature in our political faith, in which we follow all the Presidents, down to JAMES K. POLK, who first took a stand against Home Labor,—we say we should have been better pleased to see this doctrine stated boldly and frankly. A "home market for home produce, and independence of foreign countries," is the genuine American Whig creed, battled for on many a field, and the Convention might as well have said so.

The sixth declaration, is plain, and unequivocal in favor of the right and duty of Congress to "open and repair harbors, and remove obstructions to rivers." Were a commentary needed, it would be found in the fact that Whigs, everywhere and always, have voted for these appropriations. It is strongly contrasted with the miserable shuffling of the Democratic Convention, which declared that Congress "has no power to enter upon a general system of Internal Improvements," leaving the people to judge of its meaning by its acts. In killing all appropriations of the kind, and nominating for President a man who has always firmly opposed them.

The seventh declarations comes under the same head as the 1st and 2nd.

As to the eighth declaration, we have already spoken. We have only to add that we cordially agree with its sentiments, if we may be allowed to interpret it in this wise:

The series of acts referred to, viz: abolition of the slave trade in the District of Columbia—free soil in California and New Mexico, &c—the purchase of Texas—and the Fugitive Slave Law, are to be "maintained, enforced, insisted on," &c. with as many other strong Dictionary words as any one pleases to add, until time and experience shall demonstrate the necessity of further legislation on those subjects. That is our platform—that is the Whig platform, and places the so called compromise measures just where they ought to be. If any of them is a bad law, and needs amendment (and we are decidedly of opinion that one of them does so require,) we want it done. Agitation for the purpose of agitation and trouble, we despise and abhor; but in this free land, we are not to be driven from our duty by any such cry. Meantime, the Fugitive Slave Law is not the only law of the land, nor the slave interest the only interest worth mentioning, and with enough else to do, we do not feel called upon to fill our columns, to no good purpose, with denunciations of the law referred to. With a "Union of the whigs for the sake of the Union" will come a better day, when they, by whose cordial co-operation only, the curse of slavery can ever be removed, will look at these things with calmer minds, and act accordingly.

Absurd Misrepresentation.

Our "Pierce and King" morning cotemporary finds it hard to give up the glory which it expected to gain from its candidate's military reputation, and accordingly keeps up a brazen front, while maintaining all that it has asserted, putting its faith in newspaper notices against the official record, and Gen. Pierce's own declarations. As a specimen of its latest attempts at history, the News proves that its candidate was in the battle of Molino del Rey, by an extract from a newspaper which states that after the battle, he was ordered to "take off the dead and wounded," and did so; and, again, the News proves that General Pierce was in the storming of Contreras, by a dispatch from Gen. Scott, which shows that Pierce joined the troops as they were marching from Contreras!

Now, what can be done with such a slippery customer as the News? It matters not that the official documents, Gen. Pierce's own report included, prove just what we say. It insists on its falsehoods just as strongly as ever. We shall have to let it go to destruction its own way. Yet, if we may be allowed a suggestion, we would say that the people of the West would like to hear from the "Democratic" journals, as to Mr. Pierce's hostility to river and harbor appropriations.

AN INTERESTING SCENE.—Some dozen little girls, daughters of our Irish citizens, waited upon Miss HAYES at the U. S. Hotel yesterday afternoon, to present, on behalf of their young companions and schoolfellows, an address, welcoming the fair vocalist to their home in the West. The address was printed on satin, and was very prettily read by Miss ELIZABETH MANAHAN. It was as follows:

DEAR MISS HAYES:

Though many of us were born, and all of us dwell in these backwoods of the West, we yet claim to be your little country women. We come to you, to welcome you to our American home.—We hail you, with pride in you as a lady, an artist, and a country woman. Even here, we have long delighted in the praises of Ireland's singing bird, one from

> The true Hippocrene, where glide
> The muses' swans with happiest wing,
> Dipping their bills before they sing.

In these days of the Celtic Exodus, when the ancient glories of poor old Ireland seem to have almost faded away from the memory of the world where her old hopes seem collapsed for ever, when there seems to be no other destiny for her old Celtic people but to become lost in the sublime hospitality of America, where at last her children may be good without apostacy, and great without treason,—we have only Irish worth and Irish genius, to feed our native pride; and both of these claim for you, dear lady, our admiration, and our love.

Genius may well find a voice in song. It has been said by great authority that National songs are no mean idea of National character. We are proud of ours. Irish ballads have long been famous for their sweetness and their pathos. Long ago Carolan gave to the Irish harp the airs still dearest to us. Moore added words unequalled in the lyrics of any language, and you—sweet Swan of Erin—have given them a voice worthy of both

> A voice sweet as the note
> Of the charmed lute, is heard to float
> Along its chords and so entwine
> Its sounds with theirs, that none know whether
> The voice or lute is most divine, > so wondrously they go together.

We feel that our National songs thus sung will sink deeply and kindly in the American heart; a thrilling echo of the old spirit of Irish genius and patriotism. We feel that your admirable personal character, shining from an elevation which has been with others but too often a bad eminence, will endear you to American sympathies. Wherever your high Art may lead you, may all your ways be ways of pleasantness and peace, and when that hour comes, which comes to all, when your sweet and thrilling notes shall be no longer heard, may your song, like the Muse's bird which is your emblem, "be the sweetest in dying."

With affectionate hearts, we bid you welcome to Milwaukee.

Miss Hayes responded briefly and cordially, thanking her young countrywomen for the testimony of their welcome. Her warm Irish heart spoke out in its truest tones to these children, and they will not soon forget their visit to Catharine Hayes, nor will she forget the scene, amidst her proudest triumphs.

Easy Work.

The Madison Democrat says:

> Atwood of New Hampshire, senator Chase of Ohio, and Rantoul of Massachusetts and hosts of others of that stripe have given in their adhesion to the democratic nomination. Whig papers in Massachusetts say Scott cannot carry that state: Ohio is certain for Pierce.

Assertion is marvelously easy. Will the Democrat try a little proof, by way of varying the entertainment?

MR. PIERCE'S REPLY—"OLD VIRGINNY."—The most remarkable item in Mr. Pierce's letter accepting the nomination is the following paragraph:

> I shall always cherish with pride and gratitude the recollection of the fact that the voice which first pronounced for me, came from the mother of States—a pride and gratitude rising above any consequence that can betide me personally.

It reminds one of the declaration of that prince of doughfaces, D. S. Dickinson, that he had only one regret to make, and that was, that he was not born in Virginia.

TESTIMONY FROM AN OPPONENT.—The New York Evening Post says:

> The name of General Scott is more familiar to the country, not as a politician or a statesman, perhaps, but as a military leader. There is but one man living who enjoys as enviable a military fame, if such fame is ever to be envied, and there is no American soldier, perhaps, save Washington, who has a more durable place in the history of our country. Before he was thirty years of age, he had earned imperishable honors on the northeastern frontier. Through the meridian of his life he was steadily adding to their number, and within the last decade, has crowned his military fame with a series of the most memorable victories recorded in history.
> Achievements like these are not the result of accident, nor the fruit of common-place minds; neither are they regarded as such by the American people. There is no true American who is not proud of them; no one who would not, if necessary, become the personal champion of their author's greatness, wherever and whenever such championship should be needed.

SCOTT AT VERA CRUZ.—During the bombardment of Vera Cruz, SCOTT while walking along the trenches one day, observed several of our troops rising up and looking over the parapet to watch the effect of our shot and shells. The General cried out "Down with you, men!—don't expose yourselves." "But General," said one, "you expose yourself?" "Oh!" replied SCOTT, "Generals now-a-days can be made out of anybody, but men can't easily be had."

SHAMEFUL.—The Racine Democrat, Waukesha Democrat, and other lights of the people, insist on the miserable forgery, attempted to be palmed upon Horace Greely, concerning Gen. SCOTT.

> O! wad some power the giftie gie'em
> To see themselves as others see 'em!

THE OLD GAME.—We find in the Green Bay Advocate an article glorying over what it represents to be a fact, entitled "Two more Whigs Flags struck":—the two "flags" mentioned being the Boston Transcript and Traveller, neither of which ever were Whig papers, and neither of which now take any side in politics.

MADISON.—The Daily Palladium states that the population of this beautiful town has reached 3000, and is increasing with great rapidity.

☞ The Monroe Sentinel, (Loco Foco) is bitterly opposed to the banking law.

☞ The Enquirer copies an article from the Wheeling Argus, which thus begins:

> "The Democratic Nominee was an officer in the War of 1812, and a distinguished United States Senator."

The biography published in the Union says Gen. Pierce was born in 1804—so, in 1812, he was only 8 years of age, and must, therefore, have been a very youthful officer. The Argus was probably thinking of Gen. Scott, who was an officer in 1812.—Richmond Whig.

GEN. PIERCE! GEN. PIERCE! WHO IS HE? asked a Whig on Saturday, when he heard of the Democratic nomination for President. "Why," answered a Democratic leader standing near, "he is one of the ablest men in the Union, a member of the Senate. I read an excellent speech of his the other day, in the National Intelligencer, on Mr. Clarke's non-intervention resolution. He is sound too on the compromise."

Ha! ha! ha! Our knowing democrat was speaking of the whig Senator from Maryland. There are a good many democrats hereabout who would like to know something about their candidate.—Nashville Banner.

FORT HOWARD.—The last joke of the season!—We understand that one of our townsmen, whose views upon Land Reform doctrines are in perfect harmony with the progressive spirit of the age, has, in the temporary absence of the gentleman in charge, stormed and captured Fort Howard, and quietly esconced himself behind the breast works with a view to the settlement, cultivation, and pre-emption of 160 acres of land.—Green Bay Spectator.

PROF. C. B. CHAPMAN.—We learn that Dr. C. B. CHAPMAN, of this place, has received a call to the Professorship of Anatomy in the Cincinnati College of Physicians and Surgeons. It is yet uncertain whether the Doctor will accept the change or not; but there is one thing certain—that if he should accept, the College will be peculiarly fortunate in securing the services of one so eminently qualified for the position.—Madison Palladium.

The Official Platform of the Whig National Convention.

The Whigs of the United States in Convention assembled, firmly adhering to the great conservative Republican principles by which they are controlled and governed, and now, as ever, relying upon the intelligence of the American people, with an abiding confidence in their capacity for self government, and their continued devotion to the Constitution and the Union, do proclaim the following as the political sentiments and determination, for the establishment and maintenance of which their national organization as a party was effected:

First—The Government of the United States is of a limited character, and it is confined to the exercise of powers expressly granted by the Constitution, and such as may be necessary and proper for carrying the grant of powers into full execution; and that all powers not thus granted, or necessarily implied, are expressly reserved to the States respectively, and to the people.

Second—The State Governments should be held secure in their reserved rights, and the General Government sustained in its Constitutional powers, and that the Union should be revered and watched over as the palladium of our liberties.

Third.—That while struggling freedom everywhere enlists the warmest sympathy of the whig party, we still adhere to the doctrines of the Father of his Country as announced in his Farewell Address, of keeping ourselves free from all entangling alliances, with foreign countries, and of never quitting our own to stand upon foreign ground—that our mission as a Republic, is not to propagate our opinions, or to impose on other countries our form of government by artifice or force, but to teach, by example, and to show by our success, moderation and justice, the blessings of self-government, and the advantages of free institutions.

Fourth.—That, as the people make and control the Government, they should obey its Constitution, laws, and treaties, as they would retain their self respect, and the respect which they claim and will enforce from foreign powers.

Fifth.—"Government should be conducted upon principles of the strictest economy, and revenue" sufficient for the expenses thereof in time of peace, ought to be mainly derived from a duty on imports, and not from direct taxes; and in levying such duties, sound policy requires a just discrimination, and protection from fraud by specific duties, when practicable, whereby suitable encouragement may be afforded to American industry, equally to all classes, and to all portions of the country.

Sixth—The Constitution vests in Congress the power to open and repair harbors, and remove obstructions from navigable rivers, "and it is expedient that Congress should exercise such powers" whenever such improvements are necessary for the common defence, and for the protection and facility of commerce with foreign nations, or among the States—said improvements being, in every instance, national and general in their character.

Seventh.—The Federal and State Governments are parts of one system, alike necessary for the common prosperity, peace and security, and ought to be regarded alike with a cordial, habitual and immovable attachment. Respect for the authority of each, and acquiescence in the just constitutional measures of each, are duties required by the plainest considerations of national, of State, and of individual welfare.

Resolved, The series of acts of the 31st Congress, commonly known as the Compromise, or adjustment, (the act for the recovery of fugitives from labor included,) are received and acquiesced in by the Whigs of the United States, as a final settlement, in principle and substance, of the subjects to which they relate; and so far as these acts are concerned, we will maintain them, and insist on their strict enforcement, until time and experience shall demonstrate the necessity of further legislation, to guard against the evasion of the laws on the one hand, and the abuse of their powers on the other, not impairing their present efficiency, to carry out the requirements of the Constitution; and we deprecate all further agitation of the questions thus settled, as dangerous to our peace, and will discountenance all efforts to continue or renew such agitation, whenever, and wherever, or however made—and we will maintain this settlement as essential to the nationality of the Whig party, and the integrity of the Union.

National Whig Convention---Kentucky---Gen. Combs.

After several other States, which had cast their votes for Mr. Fillmore, had given in their adhesion to the nomination of Gen. Scott, loud calls were made for Kentucky, to which Gen. LESLIE COMBS responded briefly as follows:

"He remarked that it seemed hardly necessary for him to say what the gallant Whig State of Kentucky would do next November. Her past history should speak for her. Although she had shown her sense of justice and gratitude to Mr. Fillmore, by marching up unflinchingly through fifty three ballotings, in solid column, to his support, even after it became obvious that he would most probably not be nominated, yet she had ever shown that the Whig cause was dearer to her than any individual on earth. Look at 1840 when her own illustrious, best loved son had been sacrificed at Harrisburg—while her whole heart was still sore and bleeding, she had marched up to the polls for Harrison, and given a majority of twenty five thousand votes. Again, in 1848, when the same great leader had been set aside, although many true and faithful Whigs were indignant at the outrage, yet Kentucky gave ten thousand majority for Gen. Taylor. Under these facts and circumstances Gen. C. might proudly ask, what could not Kentucky do, when Duty, Honor, and Patriotism called upon her to act? He would say to the great States of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, go to work, and continue working all the time. You have named our candidate—you have appointed the Commander-in-chief of the great Whig army for the coming campaign; muster all your forces, discipline your companies and battalions, present a firm and united, and unbroken front to the enemy in the hour of conflict. Do your duty as well as we will do ours, and victory is certain. We shall utterly rout the enemies of American labor—the opponents and destroyers of Western Internal Improvements. As for himself, humble private in the ranks as he ever had been, he need not insure them that he intended to charge bayonets upon the enemy whenever and wherever an opportunity presented itself, let whoever else fail or falter in the combat. And next November the Whigs on the sea-board would hear a heavy, lumbering noise in the West, like the rolling of distant thunder, when the solid columns of the sons of the old hunters of Kentucky are marching to the polls to cast their votes for the Hero of Lundy's Lane—the Conqueror of Mexico—against that far off General of the North, selected to lead the forces of the enemy, who had never encountered the hazards of a bloody battle-field."

The True Hero, and the Spurious.

We shall look with some curiosity to see whether the democratic papers will have any thing more to say concerning the warlike exploits of their hero candidate, Gen. PIERCE. It will not be pretended that simple Franklin Pierce would have been thought of for the Presidency. There is hardly a State out of the thirty-one that does not contain many democratic civilians of greater abilities and distinction—men whose qualifications and pretensions far exceed his—and it is inconceivable that he could have been named for the office, but for his service in the army, and his supposed availability arising from that circumstance. We can mention a dozen democrats in New Hampshire, who are fully his equals in all the qualities which are understood to be requisite in a candidate for the Presidency. Either one of them would have been just as eligible, and just as likely to have been stumbled upon, if Pierce had not had a prefix to his name. But they were all overlooked, with the hundreds of able and eminent statesmen to be found in the democratic ranks, simply because Franklin Pierce wore a yellow sash in Mexico, and had a legitimate claim to the title of General. But the Whig nomination has destroyed all hopes of making political capital for the democracy by that means. It will be a little too bold and ridiculous, even for democratic gullibility, to talk about Pierce's military achievements, when his commander-in-chief, the true hero of the Mexican war, is the competing candidate for the Presidency. SCOTT won undying fame as a soldier before Pierce was ten years old. Pierce was one of eight or ten Brigadiers, in a part of the campaign in the valley of Mexico, and it is safe to say that not one of the whole number won less distinction than himself. We do not say this by way of disparaging the courage of the democratic candidate. He is a highly respectable gentleman, of spirit and determination, with pluck enough to carry him creditably through any ordinary peril. That he bore himself bravely during the two or three times he was under fire, we do not doubt at all. He would have been hooted at otherwise. But it is trifling and nonsense to speak of him as a military man, in the presence of the great Captain of the American continent. Sagacious democrats will appreciate this, and probably none but obscure papers, conducted without intelligence or sagacity, will undertake to make a point of Pierce's martial achievements.—Buffalo Express.

The Nomination.

The nomination of SCOTT and GRAHAM, is everywhere received with enthusiasm.—The expression of approbation and confidence comes from the Whigs in every part of the Union. The lightning flashes of harmonious support are only occasionally interrupted at long intervals by a discordant sound, which desparing Locofocoism contrives to get into the wires, of Whig "defection," or "dissatisfaction."—It is of no use to talk of Whig dissatisfaction. The life of Winfield Scott is interwoven with the history of his country, and his achievements form the material of its brightest pages. His fame is the common property of the Nation, which no section or party can exclusively appropriate, and the announcement of his name thrills the heart of the great Republic like an electric shock. No other living name commands in an equal degree the admiration and gratitude of his countrymen. Locofocoism need have no concern about the harmony of the Whigs. It will find quite enough to do to keep its own ranks closed, so as to make a decent show of fight when the election comes.—Oswego Times.

Meagher's Eloquence.

We find in our New York exchanges the report of a speech delivered by Thos. F. Meagher, in reply to an address by the Meagher club. It is marred by being reported in the third person, but even in such form glows with the burning eloquence characteristic of the man. Speaking of Ireland, he said:

> Her name sounded like a funeral hymn. It told of a land, the joy of whose heart had ceased—whose inheritance was turned to strangers, and whose houses to aliens—whose young men were gone into captivity—whose cities were solitary that were once full of people, and whose gates were desolate. Of that land they had heard him speak, when the light of a new destiny—beautiful as the night which shone over the face of the prophet—revealed her in a defiant attitude to the world.—He did not then pause for words. He should not pause now, were he to behold the same transfiguration. It was painful for them to be there, and have to own that they belonged to a country which, along the great highway of nations, moved on unchartered and unrecognized. It was a galling thought. It flooded the heart with bitterness, and flushed the honest cheek with shame. The glory of a free country descended upon each one of her children—the poorest even—and they walked the world respected. They bore credentials which entitled them to the hospitality, and, it might be, to the homage of the stranger.
> It was painful for them, as he had said, to be there, and feel they had no such country. It was still more painful to reflect, that the last effort for her freedom had eventuated in so ignoble a discomfiture. But not for her glories only, but for her sorrows also, should a nation be remembered by her sons. It was a beautiful and holy love which clung to the fallen, and smiled above the sick. It was one of the beatitudes. Hymns accompanied it upon earth—there was a crown for it in heaven. This it was which filled the soul of her noblest son when there fell from him those words of sorrowful sublimity—"here shall I remain anchored, faithful to the fortunes of my country—faithful to her freedom—faithful to her fall." From generation to generation, the sacred fire had been handed down. From camp and cave, from castle and cathedral, from the senate and the scaffold, through song and legend, through tears and joyousness, through the lightnings of the battle-storm and the red haze of martyrdom, it has been faithfully transmitted. This generation should not be the first in which it should be sacrilegiously extinguished.
> It was true, that the tone and attitude of Ireland, at this moment, is little calculated to excite hopefulness or joy. But the humbler that attitude, the more subdued that tone, the more forcibly did it become the duty of all who loved her to speak the language of encouragement.—It was a grievous error to inspire false hope—it was yet more criminal to inculcate despair.—He would keep alive the feelings, keep alive the hopes, which down even to our day, have borne her with unconquerable endurance thro' the agony of ages. So long as those feelings throbbed, these hopes burned, there was an Irish Nation in existence. One, indeed, without the arms and insignia, but with the soul and susceptibilities of a nation. The honor of a nation—her wealth—her greatness—what were these? They were the emanations of the soul that dwelt within her, and the freedom of a nation is but that soul in its highest state of action.
> For one, he could not give up the hopes of seeing the land of his nativity invested with the high degrees and honors of a nation. In every vicissitude, that hope had always been to him a higher life. Before a cloud had crossed it, it filled his heart with rapture. It was the strength and impulse of his boyhood. In the light it threw around was disclosed to him a nobler world than the school books spoke of. Whatever intellect was in him, it evoked—whatever goodness was implanted in his nature, it warmed into a generous activity. To see it verified was the prayer, anxiety, and labor of his early manhood. In that season, it wrought upon him a redeeming influence. From that faithless and sordid world, in which many a pure affection withered and decayed, it bore him upwards with the power of a holy vision, and thus preserved from a perilous contagion—preserved them fresh and incorruptible—the good thoughts and aspirations of his youth. In the days of his exile—in that solitude where heart and mind were wasting silently away—amongst the strangers from whom many a burning thought was hid, and who, in their frivolous and flippant criticism, may have mistaken the reserve of sorrow for a defectiveness of thought—in the days of his exile, this hope was his secret consolation.
> Quickening him into action from the deepest languor, in the lowliest and dreariest moments of depression, it disenthralled his mind from the inactivity which threatened to subjugate it. Above the many indignities and vexations that beset his path, it lifted his spirit up, and, at intervals, filled with extacy the life that was sluggish and obscure without. Despite of the sore experiences that had chafed his spirit, it kept alive within him still, a vivifying faith in the nobler attributes and destiny of mankind. Were this hope to die, all would die within him. Destroyed—the heavens would darken over him, the earth would be to him a wilderness, and existence a desolation. Mr. Meagher concluded with the fervent prayer that it might be vouchsafed to them to see that hope fulfilled! That it might be vouchsafed to them to dwell upon the earth until the promised day had dawned upon the land of their fathers, and their eyes had beheld her salvation! That it might be vouchsafed to them to return to that land—to behold her in her gladness and glory, as they had looked upon her in her sorrow and captivity, to lead their children to her altar and dedicate them to her service—for their old age to claim an honorable seat within her gates, as they had been faithful to her in their youth—and in her holy soil a resting place for ever.

☞ We find the following merited tribute to the Whig candidate for the Presidency in the New Orleans Commercial Bulletin, a leading Southern Whig paper:—

> We look upon Major General WINFIELD SCOTT as one of the most glorious Military Chieftains this country has ever produced—in whose splendid achievements we, in common with all our fellow citizens, feel a glowing pride. His fame as a General—far-seeing, skillful, intuitively sagacious, and indomitably brave—rests upon a broader basis, and has more claims upon the gratitude and and admiration of his countrymen, than that of any American soldier, living or dead, whose brilliant deeds of arms have adorned our military annals during the present century. There is no doubt of that fact. The far-off North witnessed the displays of his youthful patriotism and heroic daring, whereby he earned a name, and nobly earned it, too, which the gnawing tooth of time could never have erased from the iron tablets of history, even had his career closed then. In maturer years, we find him warring with the savages in Georgia and Florida, braving the dangers of the climate, the rifles of the Indians, and freely exposing life and health, because his country and his duty alike called for his services.
> A few years afterwards we see him on a Mexican beach near Vera Cruz. Very soon after, his admirable arrangements and determined assaults, caused the keys of the almost impregnable fortress of San Juan de Ulloa, to be laid at his feet, and the star spangled banner waved in triumph from citadel and spire. Then followed a series of brilliant triumphs, such as the world has rarely witnessed. The rocky heights of Cerro Gordo were no barriers to his invincible legions, led on and directed by so experienced and admirable a tactician. Victory followed victory in rapid and magnificent succession—Contreras and Churubusco added new and unfading laurels—and the glorious result of the battle of Mexico, gave into his hands the control of an empire. The bleak North witnessed the commencement of his glorious career of arms. The sunny clime of the tropics smiled upon the splendor of its unequalled termination.
> We are also free to express our belief, that he is a patriot in the most exalted sense of the term. How could it be otherwise? He has fought for and served the whole country during a long and brilliant life—his stalwart frame yet bears the marks of the bullets of the enemy—and on all occasions he has stood unfalteringly by the honor of our common flag.

PIERCE AT THE WEST.—A western democrat remarked in this city to-day, says the Washington Telegraph, that Gen. Pierce would find more difficulty in travelling through the west next fall than has ever been experienced by any other man.—"He will encounter," said he, "nothing but snags, shoals, narrows, and sawyers in our rivers, and nothing but miry roads and deep ravines on land. We claim the west, the northwest, the southwest and all the west—in short the great west—to be in the United States, and therefore entitled to the care and paternal regard of the government: and the man who is opposed to our most vital interests can never receive our support."—Rochester Democrat.

ORGANIZATION OF OCONTO COUNTY.—The following is the list of officers elect:

Supervisors.—Charles Windross, Phillip Franks, J. S. Hale,
County Clerk.—William Murphy.
Treasurer.—Rufus Hield.
Justices.—R. A. Jones, E. B Livermore, J. B. Jacobs, A. Place.
Town Clerk.—Thomas H. Jones.
Constables.—J. Culand, M. C. Delano.

SCOW WRECKED.—The Spectator says that the Red Rover was cast away near Gibralter (Green Bay,) a fortnight since, and has gone to pieces.—She had a cargo of fish for Messrs. Albright & Crosby, a portion of which was saved.—Green Bay Adv.

DROWNED.—We learn that Mr. Frankin Hale, from Peshtigo, drowned himself in Fox River, near Wrightstown, a few days since. Supposed to be insane.—Ibid.

KILLED.—Joseph Trudell, a Frenchman, aged about 40 years was instantly killed at Little Chute, on Saturday last, by a saw log rolling over him—He leaves a wife and a number of children in a destitute condition.—Ibid.

City Matters.

CATHERINE HAYES' CONCERT.—We have heard heretofore of the sweet notes of fair singers, bubbling up from the overflowing fountains of the heart—we have heard of crowded audiences being carried away by a full tide of song—of houses in ecstasies; and we have heard of all sorts of extravagant notices of concerts heretofore—but now we have seen, and been a part of such an audience, and we acknowledge that we are unable to express as we wish, the enjoyment of the evening. Coming to our city quietly, with no Barnum to herald her approach, CATHERINE HAYES' brilliant reputation called out one of the largest houses ever assembled in Gardiner's Hall, and her execution of the parts assigned to her in the programme of the evening, met the highest expectations of the crowded house.

Herr MENGIS, stout and hearty in appearance, first filled the house with his full, rich voice in the opening aria, from Lucretia Borgia. Miss HAYES followed with the favorite cavatina,—Ah! mon fils!—Her appearance was the signal for the heartiest welcome ever given to a vocalist in Milwaukee, and fairly commenced the enthusiasm of the evening.

We dont attempt to be critical—we just write as we felt, and as the audience felt, and showed, unmistakeably. Both in this, and in the "Happy Birdling," which last was loudly encored, and performed superbly, by Miss HAYES, accompanied by Mr. KYLE, on the flute, she took the hearts of the house with her. Herr Griebel made himself at home among our people at once, accustomed as they are to hear the violin played, as it is played in few places in this country.

We cannot go through with the programme at the hour when we write. Ask any one who was there—yes—or any one of the crowd who stood in the streets to listen.

Miss HAYES gives another, and her last concert, at the same Hall to-night, offering even a better programme than last night. Her execution of the solo "I know that my Redeemer Liveth," and of 'Casta Diva," has been received with great applause everywhere, and besides these sublime and beautiful compositions, she gives several of those homely, heart-reaching Irish ballads, of which one alone, "The Harp that once thro' Tara's Halls," is worth more than twice the price of admission. The remainder of the troupe also appear to advantage.

HORTICULTURAL EXHIBITION.—We are requested by the Executive Committee again to call the attention of our citizens to the exhibition to-morrow. The ladies, elsewhere, have taken particular interest in such exhibitions, and we hope that here, too, they will lend their assistance in decking the room, and arranging the articles contributed for show and for competition. No hands can do this so well as theirs, and the Committee will depend much upon them.

It is hoped that, despite of the very dry weather, so unfavorable for the flowers, the show will be a fair one. At all events, the Society is determined to make a beginning now; and when it is found to have an actual existence, it looks for hosts of friends.

HYDROPATHY.—We neglected, yesterday, to call attention to the advertisement of Dr. BARRETT, Hydropathic Physician, who will visit our city in a few days, and give a course of lectures. We understand that he contemplates establishing a "Water Cure" here, if things are favorable. They cannot well be more so. Fresh breezes, and fresh water will do the business for any man.

OH! WHAT A FALL WAS THERE!—A large two story building on Main st., which had been undermined, preparatory to removal, fell about 12 o'clock on Saturday night, with a tremendous crash, and lies in rather a mixed condition, of no particular use to anybody. It was unoccupied.

BOSTON HOTELS.—See the card of the Quincy House, Boston. Its reputation as a hotel, is second to none, for the excellent care which it takes of visitors. Our citizens wandering to the city of notions, will find the Sentinel at the "Quincy," and at the "United States."

THE PANORAMA.—The admirers of Miss HAYES owe the proprietors of the Panorama of Italy a great deal for yielding the use of the Hall for two nights, for her concerts. The most acceptable way to repay them is by crowding the Hall after they re-open, which will be Thursday evening.

☞ WALL's sale this morning commences with the disposal of the furniture of Rev. Mr. STEELE, comprising many desirable articles.

A Nice Question.

Messrs. Editors:—Will you inform me which is the true style of crossing the arms over the back by Gentlemen? Napoleon, I believe, crossed the arms over the coat, while John Jacob Astor and Girard, crossed under the coat. The habit becoming quite general, the question ought to be settled. Is it known which way, if either, the Rothschilds walk? Q.

Boston Custom House and Schools.

Correspondence of the Cleveland Herald.

A new Custom House, the most beautiful and substantial buildings in the country, is also erected on land reclaimed from the sea, its foundation being laid on 3000 piles, covering an area of 14,000 feet. The Custom House is built of Quincy granite, and the order of its architecture is Grecian Doric. The extreme length is 140 feet, and its depth, omitting porticos, 75 feet. Heighth to top of dome, also granite, 95 feet. There are 32 fluted granite columns, each 5 feet 4 inches in diameter, and 32 feet high. These give a massive appearance to the exterior. The dome is supported by 12 fluted Corinthian columns of marble, 29½ feet in height. Above them rises the dome 32 feet more. The lower circumference of the dome is 195 feet. The circumference of the eye of the dome is 56½ feet. The beautiful variegated stained glass sends down a flood of mellowed light. It is the most perfect and superb Hall, in the Corinthian style, in the United States.

The Quincy granite blocks of stores in Boston, particularly on Pearl street, have no equals in extent, solidity and beauty. They are built to last for ages, and the "merchant princes" who occupy them, like their ancestors, are noted as "fair and generous traders." Their standing, as business men, is firm as the granite of their palaces. Failures are almost unknown. From here the products of the busy workshops of New England are distributed the world over. As a sample, the single house of Messrs. Allen, Harris & Potter, sell annually boots and shoes to the value of five millions of dollars! This old firm have the most extensive boot and shoe store in the world, as well as trade "in their line." Their means and facilities are unlimited. Boots, Shoes and Leather stand first among the manufacturers of Massachusetts. The valuation in 1845 was $18,635,000, and the increase since then has not been less than 30 per cent.

The Public Schools of Boston stand deservedly high. They are the pride of the people, and are fostered and liberally sustained by the city authorities. The salaries and sums paid secure the best of instructors. The Superintendent of the High and Grammar Schools receives $2,500.—Grammar and Writing Masters $1,500 each.—Ushers $800 each. Head Assistants $400 each Assistants $300 each. Masters of Latin and High Schools $2,400 each. Sub-Masters $1,500 each. Music teachers $100 a year in each School.—School Committee direct what books used, which must be provided by parents or guardians. Boys allowed in School till 14, girls till 16. Children in Boston in 1850, between 5 and 15, 24,295.—Salaries of Primary School Teachers $300 each, and $25 for care of room. About two hundred Public Schools are maintained in Boston, at an annual expense of $325,000.

NEWS FROM THE PLAINS.—Mr. Thos. Doolittle returned from Messrs. Perreys' trains at the crossing of the Platte river beyond Fort Kearney on the 8th of May. He states the health of the train could not be better, and that emigrants generally were getting on well. The grass being unusually fine, he says that there is little or no sickness beyond the Blue. The streams are generally low and not difficult to cross.

The following is a statement of the emigration which had passed Fort Kearney up to the 30th of May:

3,962 Wagons,	12,197 Men,
40,595 Oxen,	2,245 Women,
3,025 Mules,	3,068 Children,
5,164 Horses,	1 Hog,
2,801 Sheep.

Mr. Doolittle's impression is that one half of the emigrants had passed Fort Kearney, and nearly all of the drovers of cattle. If he is correct, the emigration over land will fall short of 1851.—Weston (Mo.) Reporter.

MURDER IN PAINESVILLE.—Two Irishmen quarreled yesterday in a field where one of them was hoeing, about the collection of a debt one owed the other, and Thos. Fergus struck the other with his hoe, breaking his skull, and afterwards horribly cut him, so that he died last night. The name of the deceased we did not learn. Fergus has been arrested.—Cleveland Herald 24th.

SUNSET.

The day is dying! and across my path
Streameth the golden lightning of the sun,
Bathing the hill-tops with his latest look—
Kissing the spires that point from earth to heaven!
Like the good man, who, on his death-bed laid—
Forgetful of the pleasant vales of life,
Where he had pitched his dwelling of a night;
And mindful only of his highest thought—
The azure future—undisturbed and pure—
Casts his tired soul—so weary of unrest—
Upon the mountains of Eternity!

And yonder loveful gathering of the clouds—
Like friends drawn round the bright, but sinking soul—
Takes all the attitudes of hope and woe.
One fragile thing, with the intensity
Of hopeless grief, scatters her glittering hair
Along the sky, and dies! like the Hindoo,
Refusing to live longer than her lord.
Another figure kneeleth, with bow'd heart,
But bright uplifted forehead—star eyed Hope
Whispers to him, "A day is nought to Time;
And Time is nothing to Eternity;
The parted meet again." This overpowered
With watching o'er his friend sinks on the dusky rim
Of the horizon; and, while yet I linger,
Sun, clouds and all have vanish'd from my sight,
And twilight's silent loom is weaving day with night!

June 24th. PORTE CRAYON

☞ Mr. Fitch Poole, the poet of the recent centennial celebration at Danvers, Mass, thus hits off the rappers:—

I saw these Wizards gather round,
To listen to a Tapping,
In wide-mouthed wonder swallow all
The Witchery of Rapping.

It was (I own with humble shame,)
A mystery to me,
That souls in bliss should come to Earth,
To say their A, B, C.

Oh, what a Miracle sublime!
It shows the World's advance,
When Spirits leave their bright abodes
To make a table dance!

To have this awful mystery solved,
Perhaps they may be able—
The Faith that will a Mountain move
Can doubtless move a Table.

COMMERCIAL.

THE MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
MILWAUKEE, June 29, 1852.

We find very little change in prices to note, in making up the summary of another week's business.

The receipts by Railroad have reached 3500 bus wheat, 660 bus oats, 123 bbls flour, 11750 lbs wool, 13 bbls eggs, 1150 lbs flax,—&c.

Shipments of 2000 bbls flour, 169 do pork, 8 do eggs, 4 tons flax, 44391 lbs bacon, 24000 lbs broom corn, 21,123 lbs wool, 3632 do hides, 200 bbls lime, &c.

Several steamers have arrived from Europe since our last, but their news is not encouraging. If anything, prices abroad have receded slightly, but generally on this side markets are firm.

Except that rain is greatly wanted, we hear excellent accounts from all parts of our state of the prospects of the growing crops. Receipts here are steadily increasing, the principal business doing, however, being in oats and wool, for the past week, both of which have commanded good prices.

FLOUR.—We have no change, and no prospect of a change to notice. Quotations are nominal at 2,25 for inferior country, to 4.25a4 50 for city and country family extra. Shipments large. The mills are doing a fair business again, having run off some 1500 bbls since our last.

WHEAT—receipts moderate—prices range as usual, say 40a46 for spring, and 45a70c for winter. A few choice loads taken at a little above 70c. There is a demand for vessels to freight wheat below. We notice one sale of a cargo of Milwaukee spring in Buffalo at 58c.

BARLEY—dull business—very little coming in, and that taken as it happens, at 25a28c.

CORN—quotations nominal at 31a33c.

OATS—active—sales large—receipts taken readily at 23a 23½.

PORK—stock light and transactions limited—sales in small quantities at $16,50 for mess, prime $15,00.

WOOL—The receipts during the week past have been very large, reaching nearly 20000 lbs. Competition among buyers, more than any real reason in the state of markets east, has caused prices to range high, the average being 3½a4c higher than the week previous. Several of the heaviest clips have come in. One clip of 1500 lbs and over, sold on Tuesday at 35½c. Dealers pay the high rates very reluctantly, but still they do pay them, and the farmers are getting well paid. From the disposition of buyers towards the end of the week, we expected to see a fall yesterday, but the bulk of the sales was high still. Among the sales were a lot of 91lbs at 18c,—300a500lbs at 24a26c—303lbs at 27, and 593lbs, a superior lot, at 30½c. For one clip of about 2000lbs, 35½c was offered for all except about 200lbs—but the holder wanted more.

According to the Buffalo "Wool Grower," a valuable farmer's paper, prices ought to range about as follows for that market:—

Common to ½ blood	26 to 29c
¾ to ⅞	28 to 31c
Full blood Merino	34 to 39c
" " Saxon	35 to 45c
Saxon and Merino, heavy	36 to 42c
" " " light	38 to 45c

These prices have, under the brisk competition of last week, been exceeded here. The same paper looks for an increase of price, say 3 to 5c ♥ lb in the fall. According to the best evidences accessible to us, we cannot promise such an increase here, and advise holders to sell while they can.

> PROVIDENCE, June 19th.—Fleece is much in request, but little in market. The season at the West is very late, and on that account no fleece has as yet come forward. The prospect is the clip will come in higher than was at first anticipated. Farmers are holding back their wool in many cases rather than submit to present prices. The following are the sales for the week: Fleece 35,500 lbs at from 32a 41c; largest sales at 36 and 41c. Pulled 36,000 lbs at from 27½a41c; largest sales at 34½, 39 and 41c. Total sales of the week 71,500 lbs—[Journal.
> There is great competition among wool buyers and figures are far above what eastern quotations appear to warrant. The receipts which are purchased here from wagons are about 2000 lbs per day. The arrivals to-day have been taken generally at 33a34c, probably an average of 33c.—[Sandusky City 22d inst.

LEATHER—Sales lively at the recent advance. We quote Spanish hemlock sole at 20a22c.

HIDES—In steady demand at 3½c for green, 8c for dry—Kips 12½, calf 15c.

EGGS—supply and shipments large—we quote at 7c for packed, 8c at retail.

POTATOES.—Scarce and poor—prices range from 87½a 100 per bu.—New just coming into market.

BUTTER—Extra, 12½a14c—good firkin 9a11c.

No change in groceries generally, except we note an advance in coffee, and quote Rio at 10a11, Java 12½a15. Laguayra 10a11.

TIMOTHY SEED $1,50—shipment of 40 lbs.

OILS.—Sperm. $1,35a1,60—whale 90ca1,00—linseed 75c—lard 81a87 1-2

WHITE LEAD,—Buffalo, pure, in oil 7.00 pr 100 lbs—Thompson & Co's 6,25a7,20.

Lime 75c pr bbl.

Coal—Erie $8—Lehigh $12.

IRON & NAILS—no change.

FREIGHTS—To Buffalo—on flour 40c—pork 35c—oats 7a 7 1-2c—wheat 8a9.

LAND WARRANTS—160 acres, $135—40 acres $45.

> TROY WOOL MARKET.—The market rather quiet, all waiting for new wool. Sales about 20,000 lbs. New wool comes in freely in small lots. Wool from Ohio expected the latter part of next week in this market. Considerable competition in the wool market west, and fear of excitement. Foreign news rather tends to excite the market. Everything in regard to permanent figures for the season is in doubt.
> Speculation is rife, and great fear that prices may rule higher than prudent for manufacturers to purchase. Wool in this market at this critical moment is selling at very low figures; and would, doubtless, continue so were it not for the imprudence of manufacturers in sending agents into the country, and the anxiety of dealers to buy as much wool as they can—grounding their reason upon the English market.—Whig.

MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL.

NEW SERIES.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Arrival of the Niagara.

Halifax, June 23

The Niagara has 50 passengers, 9 of whom remain at Halifax.

The Sarah Sands left Liverpool on the 10th instant.

Political news unimportant.

The English Government says it has no need of the extra grant of £200,000 to carry on the Kaffir war.

The London press have opened on the Police of Paris for the threat of the latter to expel their correspondent.

In France the Constitutionnel newspaper and the government had a mere quarrel.

At a meeting of the German States, Hanover declared she will have nothing to do commercially with Austria, and commands unconditional and immediate answers from the powers in regard to the pending project.

The Kaffir war is apparently ended.

Vicksburg, June [illegible]

The nominations of the Baltimore Whig Convention give general satisfaction. Many think it the strongest which could have been got up under the circumstances.

Mobile, June 21

The nomination of Gen. Scott is received with considerable favor, and as Graham endorsed the Platform it is thought that the Whigs of Alabama will unite upon his election.

Montgomery, June 23

The nomination of Scott and Graham were received with general satisfaction.

A salute was fired in honor of the event.

Macon, June 23

The people of this city are much disappointed with the nomination of Scott and Graham. Many are disposed to reject the ticket.

Charleston, June 24

The Mercury says that the Southern Whigs will ratify the nomination of Scott.

It considers him the strongest man that could be nominated, and thinks he will be the hardest to beat.

Boston, June [illegible]

During the concluding remarks of Attorney General Clifford in the case of Davis, this a. m., the prisoner, who had been weeping, sprang suddenly to his feet, and with blanched cheeks and eyes that flashed madness and fury, shook his clenched fists at Clifford and exclaimed—

"It is no such thing, by G—d. I never said any such thing, by G—d—I never did. Joanna Holderness has lied about me. I can't sit still and hear such lies."

The officers here endeavored to quiet the prisoner, when his children cried out "Father, father, don't hurt Father!" The court and spectators were melted to tears at the affecting incident.

The prisoner evidently feels the most agonizing anxiety.

Washington, June 24

The House was engaged to-day on a Land Bill which appropriates 60,000,000 acres of the public domain for certain purposes.

The Whig papers received from the interior of Virginia, Maryland, N. Carolina, all announce the Whig nominations to be received with general satisfaction, and say that they will be supported by the Whigs of their respective States.

Newport, R. I. June 24

Pursuant to a call of the Whig State Committee a convention to nominate Presidential Electors assembled at the State House, last evening. Hon. Alfred Bosworth was chosen President. A committee of five from Providence county, and three from each of the other counties were appointed to nominate suitable candidates for the convention.

Elisha Harris, of Coventry, Isaac P. Hazard of Newport, and Amos D. Smith, of Providence and Charles Allen of North Kingston, were appointed such Electors.

The nominating Committee were authorized to fill any vacancy that might occur.

Philadelphia, June 23

Immense gathering last night, on the occasion of the Whig ratification meeting, at Independence Square. John B. Myers, a prominent Fillmore man, presided. A resolution was presented by Judge Conrad, affirming the nominations. Speeches were delivered at two different stands by Gov. Jones and Col. Nevil of Tennessee, Preston of Kentucky, Duncan of Louisiana, Colbert of Mississippi, Gen. Edley, Judge Jessup, Gov. Johnston and others. Delegations marched to the square in procession with music and lanterns.—Among them was a crowd from the Northern Liberties calling themselves "Soup Boys." During the evening there were salutes, fire-works and other demonstrations.

Baltimore, June 23

Later dates from Texas have been received.—The Galveston Civilian states that their situation is worse now than in 1836. Mexicans are on one side, Indians on the other—no protection—if the general government will not give us protection we must call upon the State.

Albany, June 2[illegible]

The decision of the Supreme Court of this district in the case involving the legality of the recent award of official advertising by the Comptroller and Secretary of State has just been made public and filed in the clerk's office.

The decision which is unanimous is that the Argus is still the official State paper under the award of 1846.

Judge Wright delivered the opinion of the Court, in which Justices Parker and Harris concurred.

The following are the conclusions to which they arrived. From a careful report taken from a careful review of the Law of 1846, my conclusions are:

1st. That the authority of the state officers under the 4th section could be exercised but for a single occasion, and that when so exercised in April 1846 the authority was spent.

2d.—That the Bond taken was a condition precedent to the award, and that it substantially complied with the requirements of the act.

3d. That the action of the Secretary of State and Comptroller in '48, '50 and '52 in giving and awarding the publication of notices was without authority of law—the defendants therefore are still the persons charged with the printing and publishing all notices required to be published in the State paper by any law of this State.

Washington, June 25

It is understood that Mr. Webster will, after the present administration, retire absolutely from public and active professional life.

Boston, June 25

Davis on trial here for the murder of his sister has been found guilty.

A Sign of Intemperance.

A few minutes ago we had the following dialogue:

"You think Gen. Scott will be elected then, do you?" The reply was—"Well, I have not yet seen any sober man who thought otherwise. If a fellow should get pretty drunk he would be very likely to have some wild notions in his head, about the possibility of beating Scott, or something of that sort, but he would come to his senses again as soon as the effects of the liquor had passed off."—Toledo Blade.

ON THE MOVE.—The May Flower came down yesterday morning with over 400 cabin passengers. She left again last evening with her cabins full, and a whole village of German emigrants on her decks, which were literally covered. Had it been a political gathering, there would not, in the papers, have been "less than two thousand present."—Buffalo Com.

STEALING FROM GARDENS.—The author of "Rural Hours," after speaking of some well dressed girls, "elegantly flounced," &c., reaching their hands through the garden fence and helping themselves to some of the finest and rarest flowers, just as if they had a right to them, asks the very pertinent question, "what would they have thought if some one had stepped up with a pair of scissors and cut half a yard from the ribbon on their hats, merely because it was pretty, and one had a fancy to it?" Yet the flowers cost more time, labor and money, and could not be so easily replaced.

GREAT UNITED STATES

CIRCUS!

The Magnificent Equestrian Troupe of OLDER & CO.
WILL EXHIBIT THEIR CELEBRATED PERFORMANCES IN MILWAUKEE,
ON SATURDAY, JULY, 10th, 1852.

Equestrian Manager . . . W. Waterman.
Clown . . . Puss Horner.

THE great popularity of this establishment, and the general satisfaction given in the Performances render an introduction scarcely necessary to the public. The Proprietor, however, would call attention to the fact that in order to render the Exhibition still more attractive and worthy of patronage, they have engaged some of the most celebrated Equestrians in the world and expended a vast sum of money in decorations, trappings, wardrobe and general paraphernalia, rendering their Circus the most pleasing, and containing the largest amount of talent ever seen in this country. Among the most prominent features of the entertainments given are the famous French Equestrian

MONS. CERMAN,

Better known as the Juggler Voltigeur, exhibiting an original and interesting display of Equestrianism on Horse back.

The elegant, fascinating and youthful Parisian Artiste

MLLE MARIETTA

Has likewise been added to the Troupe, and will appear in her Grand Act of the Manege, with spirited illustrations of Lady Equestrianism. The beautiful school of Horsemanship introduced by this lady has been adopted by all the distinguished Riders of Europe and this country. Her graceful and confident security in the saddle even during the most wild and extravagant exercises of her steed, her chaste and appropriate style of riding, her tasteful costume and her admirable dexterity in managing her high bred courser, justly entitle her to the position of First Lady Equestrienne of the Age. Her beautiful road Horse trained by herself is of the finest stock in Europe, and has been for years the greatest favorite at Franconi's in Paris. Ladies who desire to excel in this invigorating and graceful exercise should not lose the opportunity of witnessing the achievements of this Artiste.

MLLE HENRIETTA

The accomplished Danseuse.

THE NOBLE STUD OF HORSES

Will be introduced in a grand Historical Cavalcade entitled the [illegible], in which all the principal riders of the troupe will appear in superb costume, trappings, housings &c.

MR. W. WATERMAN,

Will ride a troupe of four horses in the character of a Grecian Charioteer, performing a number of rapid and scenic evolutions.

MR. H. BUCKLEY

Will exhibit his finished and brilliant act of Single Horsemanship, combining grace, courage and skill.

MR. W. CHAMBERS

The great Scientific Rider from Welch's National Circus.

MR. W. COLL

Will give a practical illustration of Muscular Flexibility in a great variety of dislocation and contortion feats.

ANTIPODEAN EXPLOITS

By Mr. SHOALTS on the Magic Ladder.

Exhibitions of sagacity and superior training by the famous Trick Horse ALEXANDER.

MR. W. WATERMAN & MR. BUCKLEY

Will appear together on two horses in a grand classic act entitled the

OLYMPIA WRESTLERS,

In the course of which they will exhibit a number of difficult, graceful and pleasing attitudes, tableaux and evolutions taken from the old Pictures.

THE GRAND CONTEST OF THE ARENA

In which the entire company will contend for supremacy in Tumbling, Vaulting and somersetting, will be given with surprising energy and elegance by some of the most accomplished Gymnasts in the profession.

Added to these attractions the interior of the Exhibition Pavilion will be fitted up and arranged in an elegant and commodious manner, a fine Band of Music will accompany the performances, a brilliant light will be diffused around every part, the most perfect decorum maintained both in language, costume and action, and every facility afforded for the comfort and delight of the most respectable audiences, for whom alone the proprietors exclusively cater.

ADMISSION—Boxes 50 cents, Pit 25 cents. Children under 10 years of age half price to Boxes. No half price to Pit.

☞ Performances to commence at 2½ and 7½ o'clock P. M. Doors open half an hour previously.

CIRCULATE THE DOCUMENTS!

A GERMAN WHIG CAMPAIGN PAPER!!

THE subscriber, determined to do all in his power to aid the elevation to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT and WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, the Candidates of the Whig Party, has concluded to furnish for the Campaign the

at a price barely sufficient to pay the expense of issuing it. It is unnecessary to urge reasons why the "Telegraph" or some other good German Whig paper should be placed in the hands of every German voter. The attacks of the Loco Foco German press have already been seen, and no means, however dishonorable, will be spared to prejudice this large class of voters against General Scott. The charge of Native Americanism is the [illegible] with forged letters they hope to gain their point. These charges will be met more boldly and with greater audacity [illegible] the knowledge that but few German Whig papers exist to refute them.

As regards the "Telegraph," whereof its influence [illegible] not a word need be said [illegible] we will merely remark that as a German paper it has stood single handed battling for Whig principles in the Empire State, for seven years, and has received the highest encomiums from the New York Whig press for its efficient services and usefulness. In the Editorial Department he is associated with the undersigned ADOLPH HEILMAN Esq., a gentleman of superior talent and large political experience. The first number for the Campaign will be issued on the 17th day of July, and will contain a condensed history of the life and services of Gen. Scott, and will be furnished till election.

KENOSHA WATER CURE.

DR. H. T. SEELEY, late of Chicago, has recently fitted up the large and commodious building, known as the National Hotel at Kenosha, Wisconsin, and is now prepared to receive patients, who wish to be treated on strictly Hydropathic principles.

DR. SEELEY has had several years experience in this mode of practice, and the universal success attending it, thus far enables him to say with confidence to those who are seeking the recovery of their health by this efficient method of cure, that he will guarantee as thorough and judicious treatment as can be obtained at any Water Cure in the United States.

The house is sufficiently retired to make it pleasant, and commands a fine view of the Lake. The water used is soft and pure. For further information address

Chicago Commercial College.

THIS INSTITUTION now permanently established in Chicago affords to the young men of Illinois and the adjoining States a desirable opportunity with excellent facilities for the acquisition of a complete

COMMERCIAL EDUCATION.

The Course of Study Comprises BUSINESS PENMANSHIP, DOUBLE ENTRY BOOK KEEPING, in which is acquired a thorough and practical knowledge of the art of managing, on scientific principles, the books of Individuals, Partnerships, or Corporations, in every variety of business with COMPOUND Co. and other MERCANTILE ACCOUNTS, a complete course of COMMERCIAL CALCULATIONS and the subject of COMMERCIAL LAW, as applied to the different departments of trade—a knowledge of which is indispensable to correct business action.

Students may enter at any time, (being instructed individually and not in classes) and qualify themselves for active business pursuits in from 8 to 12 weeks, obtaining an amount of knowledge, otherwise generally but imperfectly acquired only by years of laborious practice in business.

The undersigned feels assured from his knowledge of the most approved and popular mode of teaching, adopted, and an experience of over twenty years in various business pursuits, that he will be able to communicate to students a thorough knowledge of the subjects of instruction contemplated, thereby qualifying them to take a high rank as business men, and to conduct and manage their own affairs intelligently and correctly, or to operate as accountants in responsible business stations, when their services may find an adequate reward.

Students from abroad can obtain good Boarding and Lodging at from $2 to $3 per week.

☞ Pamphlets containing the terms of tuition, and a description of the Collegiate Course and subjects of instruction, with much other information in detail, can be seen or obtained at the Banking Office of McCrea & Bell, Milwaukee.

DRY GOODS AT WHOLESALE,

City Auction Room.

I AM now selling at Private Sale, on the 2nd Floor of my Store, a complete assortment of STAPLE DRY GOODS, purchased at the lowest rates of one of the most extensive Importing Houses in the City of Boston or in the United States.

Country Merchants and Pedlers I invite you to come and examine my Goods before you purchase. I will sell them for a very small profit. I will show you what they cost and I will let you have them at a moderate advance. I can sell at as small a profit as any one, for I have no one to divide the profits with. My terms, invariably, will be Cash, or 2, 3 or 4 mos. for undoubted Bank paper, with 7 per cent interest.

I know not how others sell their goods, and I have not a word to say against any of my fellow merchants—hope they will all do well and make money. I am determined to make it in a fair way, without injuring or saying aught to any one.

I also will have a WHOLESALE AUCTION every Tuesday, at 10 o'clock.

I am also ready with Five to Six Thousand Dollars to purchase or advance on Goods. I am always ready to attend to all calls for sales in doors or out doors.

I would return my sincere thanks to my fellow Citizens for the liberal patronage they have shown me, and can assure them that any business in the Auction or Commission line entrusted to me, shall be met with that same promptness which I have done heretofore.

CHICAGO, June 19, 1852.

MR. S. JOHNSON, JR., Milwaukee.

SIR:—For more than six years I have been severely afflicted with accumulation of dandruff upon the head, and have frequently applied to the most celebrated of your profession for relief. They have tried upon me a variety of specifics, but with no success, and I feared that it was incurable. I apprehended some scrofulous affection, so firm was the accumulation. About six weeks since I determined to use your preparation, known as the Chemical Hair Invigorator, but I expected no other advantage from the use of it than that of the perfumery or oil; but, much to my astonishment and gratification I find my head completely free from dandruff, and my hair soft and healthy, an effect that has followed from the use of no other remedy. I use the preparation now but once a week, and find that my hair needs no other dressing. I believe I am entirely cured. I am so delighted at my good fortune in thus getting rid of what has been a source of serious annoyance, that I have determined to send you this evidence of the effects, and shall be happy at any time to bear testimony to the excellence and efficacy of your Chemical Hair Invigorator.

Yours, respectfully,
je22 D. R. HOLMES.

PATENT MEDICINES.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1851, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., in the clerk's Office of the District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Another Scientific Wonder!

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S GREAT DYSPEPSIA CURER!

THE TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID, OR GASTRIC JUICE

PREPARED from Rennet, or the fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, Curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice.

☞ Half a teaspoonful of PEPSIN, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five Pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

PEPSIN is the chief element, or Great Digestive Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree Curious and Remarkable.

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE.

Baron Liebig, in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

Dr. Pereira, in his famous treatise on "Food and Diet," published by Fowler & Wells, New York, page 35, states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are few higher authorities than Dr. Pereira.

Dr. Combe, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastric Juice is a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding everything else to fail, had resource to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomachs of living animals, which proved completely successful."

Dr. Graham, author of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomachs of animals, macerated in water, impart to the fluid the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestive process."

Professor Dunglison, of the Jefferson College, Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Physiology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject.—His experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastric Juice, obtained from the living human stomach and from animals, are well known. "In all cases," he says, "digestion occurred as perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions."

Dr. John W. Draper, Professor of Chemistry, in the Medical College of the University of New York, in his "Text Book of Chemistry," page 386, says, "It has been a question whether artificial digestion could be performed—but it is now universally admitted that it may be."

Dr. Carpenter's standard work on Physiology, which is in the library of every Physician, and is used as a Text-Book in all the Colleges, is full of evidence similar to the above, respecting the remarkable Digestive power of Pepsin, and the fact that it may be readily separated from the stomach of the calf or ox, and used for experiments in Artificial Digestion, or as a remedy for disease of the stomach, and deficient secretion of Gastric Juice.

All modern works on Chemistry, Materia Medica, and Physiology, and all good Medical Dictionaries, describe the character and properties of PEPSIN, and state many interesting details respecting it.

The fact that an Artificial Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice, perfectly resembling the natural fluid, may be readily prepared, does not admit of question. The only wonder is, that it has not before been applied to the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia—so naturally does such a use suggest itself to the mind.

AS A DYSPEPSIA CURER,

Dr. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN has produced the most marvellous effects, in curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement, but authenticated certificates have been given of more than Two Hundred Remarkable Cures, in Philadelphia, New York, and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to Billious disorder, Liver complaint, Fever and Ague, or badly treated Fever and Ague, and the evil effects of Quinine, Mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive Organs, after a long sickness. Also, for excess in eating and the too free use of ardent spirits. It almost reconciles Health with Intemperance.

OLD STOMACH COMPLAINTS.

There is no form of Old Stomach Complaints which it does not seem to reach and remove at once. No matter how bad they may be, it gives Instant Relief! A single dose removes all the unpleasant symptoms, and it only needs to be repeated for a short time to make these good effects permanent. Purity of Blood and Vigor of Body follow at once. It is particularly excellent in case of Nausea, Vomiting, Cramps, Soreness of the pit of the stomach, distress after eating, low, cold state of the Blood, Heaviness, Lowness of Spirits, Despondency, Emaciation, Weakness, tendency to Insanity, Suicide, &c.

Dr. Houghton's PEPSIN is sold by nearly all the dealers in fine drugs and Popular Medicines, throughout the United States. It is prepared in Powder and in Fluid form—and in Prescription vials for the use of Physicians.

Private Circulars for the use of Physicians, may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his Agents, describing the whole process of preparation and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a Secret Remedy, no objection can be raised against its use by Physicians in respectable standing, and regular practice. Price One Dollar per bottle.

☞ Observe this.—Every bottle of the genuine PEPSIN bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copyright and Trade Mark secured.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

CONTAINING NO ALCOHOL.

THE best and strongest certified medicine in the world for the cure of Dyspepsia in all its forms—such as headache, heartburn, habitual costiveness, acidity of stomach, loss of appetite, piles, incipient consumption, debility arising from protracted fevers, fever and ague, exposure to heat or cold, old age, and diseases arising from imperfect digestion, or deranged condition of the stomach. It is also an excellent remedy and not surpassed by any medicine in use, for females suffering from uterine or nervous derangement.

Among the numerous and highly respectable certificates, we refer to the following:

IMPORTANT TO THE PUBLIC!

THE following advertisement was published in May, 1849 in the Boston Daily Times, and various other newspapers in the United States, by James G. Wilson, Esq., the owner of the "Woodworth Patent," shortly after I had secured to me a PATENT STATIONARY CUTTING, PLANING, TONGUING AND GROOVING MACHINE, throughout the United States.

"PLANING MACHINES.

"I take this method of answering the frequent inquiries, by letter and otherwise, as to my opinion upon the various notices through the papers, of the Stationary Knife Planing Machines attempted to be palmed off upon several persons ignorant of the true worth [illegible] I would state for the information of all concerned that this well and substantially the machine now offered by several pretending inventors, described in the [illegible] volume of the Repertory of Arts as invented by Samuel Bentham in the year 1791. A like machine was patented in this country by one Hugher some six years since, and another one put up by Albert Richards, of West Troy, N. Y., and abandoned about the same time. It ought to be [illegible] to the public to know that after fifty eight years experiment [illegible] upon these machines, not one in use at [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].
I will furnish a Stationary Knife Machine equal to any now in use, or to any offered by the pretending inventors, at the cost of the machine and five per cent for my trouble.
JAMES G. WILSON
May 19 1849 Philadelphia"

I deny that any person ever saw or heard of such a machine as mine until I invented the same. Said machine was operated in the month of August, 1848 and no machine before this could do so much work, and do it as well as mine. [illegible] the above advertisement, and in order that the public may be assured that I mean what I say, I will deposit ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS against an equal amount from said Wilson, that ONE of my machines will plane or [illegible] more [illegible] with less power, as much [illegible] [illegible] as well or better than TWO of the Woodworth machines. The trial to be made at my shop [illegible], Boston, Mass., or at such other place as may be convenient for such a trial.

We would respectfully call the attention of our many friends, and the public generally, to an instrument we have recently imported from Paris called a from which the above cut was taken. By it we can take the exact shape and accordingly fit the most irregular heads. Many can testify to the inconvenience and annoyance, and actual pain they are subjected to, in breaking in Hats that will not fit them. By this ingenious contrivance, this very great annoyance is done away, as the Hats are made to fit perfectly the first time.

"Conformateur,"

Another great advantage is, by keeping a copy of the impression we can at all times fit our customers from all parts of the country.
We invite all who desire a perfect fit in a Hat to call and leave an impression of their head, and all those who take pleasure in witnessing the operations of the ingenious, to call and see the operations of this curious instrument.
Having adopted the CASH SYSTEM (which all will readily acknowledge to be the best,) we are enabled to sell the best Silk Hat made, at the extreme low price of $1.25, surpassing any $5 Hat sold in this city. Our Hats are all manufactured by ourselves, and in offering them to our customers we do so, with the confident assurance they are all we recommend them to be. We invite all who do not wish to pay two profits upon a Hat and are willing to save 25 per cent, to call and see us.

HAWKINS'
STAVE DRESSING

MACHINE.
PATENTED JULY 22, 1851.

THIS machine is now in successful operation at the shop of Wm. Hawkins in this city, and will dress staves for

Packing, Flour and Whiskey
BARRELS,
and PIPES or HOGSHEADS, at the rate of 600 Whiskey or 800 Flour Barrel Staves
PER HOUR,

straight, winding or crooked. In fact, any stave that can be worked by hand will be dressed by this machine, either for tight or slack work, from 2 inches to 72 inches in length of any reasonable width and to any requisite bilge, and in the most perfect manner. The stave passes through the machine a single time, is dressed by rotary cutters and is then ready for the truss hoops. The dressing of the sides and jointing of the edge of the stave is performed perfectly. The machine is made of iron, is strong and durable, and is no difficult to keep in good order for use. Six horse power is sufficient to drive the machine with all the speed necessary.
The Subscribers having purchased of Wm. Hawkins the patent right for the United States are prepared to sell rights for States, Counties, or for running single machines and to furnish and set up the machines warranted to perform perfectly. In the great saving of expense of transportation of dressed over the rough stave, the rapidity and perfect manner with which it performs its work, consists the value of this machine.
Satisfactory testimonials can be furnished if desired.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS STIFF JOINTS SPRAINS BRUISES CUTS WOUNDS FROST BITES CHOLERA MORBUS DYSENTERY TIC DOLOREUX, and all other complaints where there is severe pain, RADWAY'S READY RELIEF will instantly stop pain, and quickly cure the disease.

THE HUMAN FRAME

Is the most perfect masterpiece of mechanism in the universe. Every artery, muscle, ligament and bone, exhibits in its formation the wisdom of the Deity. Every joint and sinew works harmoniously with each other, and upon the natural performance of every function depends the healthful action of the whole.

PAIN

Disorganizes the whole system. It prostrates the nerves. It relaxes the muscles, it wrenches the joints, it interrupts with the functions of every organ, it checks the free and healthful circulation of the blood. It paralyzes the absorbents and renders them unable to take up and replace the wasted form with sound material. From the very moment that this beautiful masterpiece of God becomes afflicted with pain the influence is experienced throughout the whole system, no matter in what part or locality the pain may originate, whether in the Head, the Feet, the Back, the Knee Joints, the Elbow, the Teeth, the Gums, or the Stomach; whether it arises from internal derangement or is the result of external injury, still the pain exercises its influence throughout every portion of the human system—No a nerve or a muscle escapes its prostrating influence.

INSTANT RELIEF FROM PAIN

Is the great desideratum of every individual who suffers its tortures, no matter how light or severe its paroxysms may be. No one can feel happy while suffering its torments.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF
In a few seconds
WILL STOP THE MOST DISTRESSING PAINS.

Its effects are like electricity, it arrests the most distressing pains in a few seconds, soothing, neutralizing and healthful influence thrill through every minute cell, membrane and establishes the secretion of every gland in the system, subduing the most excruciating paroxysm of pain, and imparting strength and vitality to every organ.

NEURALGIA,
PAIN STOPPED INSTANTLY.

Radway's Ready Relief possesses an almost miraculous influence over the sharp darting pangs of pain of this cruel complaint. In a few minutes the pain stricken sufferer experiences the delightful sensations of departing pain. It has cured thousands of cases in the city of New York, where many of them had been brought almost to death's door. The effects of the Ready Relief is to stop the pain immediately, to strengthen the nervous system and supply the nerves with nervous energy and vitality, the loss of which is the chief cause of nervous pains.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE

The use of Morphine, Strychnine, Aconitine, Belladonna, Atropia and other poisons are not only dangerous but cruel. The effect of these poisons is not to cure the disease, or to remove from the system the pains but to deaden the nerves to weaken and stop the nervous energy, to paralyze the functions of the nervous system, and to destroy sensation. If this practice is continued for any length of time the patient will not only waste away but the brain will become paralyzed and the intellect destroyed.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF
IS FREE FROM MORPHINE,

And all other dangerous and narcotic influence. To the weak and paralyzed nervous system it imparts life instead of death, and the pain is stopped by the healthy influence which Radway's Ready Relief imparts to the nerves, instead of the lifeless sleep and paralyzing effect which Morphine, and all other preparations containing that poison, produces on the system.

SICK HEADACHE.

Radway's Ready Relief will stop the most distressing pains in a few minutes, and prevent renewed attacks. It will cleanse and sweeten the stomach, and neutralize the poisonous acids of the system.

ALL BOWEL COMPLAINTS,

Diarrhœa,	Dysentery,
Bloody Flux	Cholera Morbus,
Painful Discharges,

It relieves the most severe pains in a few minutes—checks the most distressing discharges, and

SPEEDILY REMOVES THE CAUSE.

RHEUMATISM.
PAINS RELIEVED IN FIVE MINUTES

Radway's Ready Relief will stop the severe and excruciating pains of Rheumatism almost instantly. Persons are living in this city who for months, were confined to their beds by Rheumatic pains, who's bones were unsound from top to toe, whose joints were distorted with painful swellings, that were relieved from all pain in 15 minutes by the use of Radway's Ready Relief. This is truth and thousands in the city of New York, and hundreds of thousands in the United States can answer for the truth of this assertion—we need no certificates of Cures—we publish no long list of names to prove the efficacy of Radway's Ready Relief, for the Citizens of almost every town in the Union for the last four years, have tested it for themselves.

CHILL FEVER
CHILLS STOPPED IN A FEW MINUTES—PAIN RELIEVED INSTANTLY

Radway's Ready Relief acts like a charm in all cases of Chills and Fever. It breaks the chills immediately—warms up and invigorates with health and strength every organ and secretion of the system.

PAINS OF ALL KINDS

Whenever you feel pain, apply Radway's Ready Relief—it is sure to relieve you in a few minutes. If you have pains in the Stomach, Intestines, in the Liver, Kidneys, Bowels, Joints Bones, Radway's Ready Relief, take it either internally or applied externally, will in a few minutes stop pain and quickly remove its cause.

BEAUTY.

Complexion richly tinted with the bloom of health,
With skin as pure and fair as Parian marble,—
Soft and sweet as the fragrant rose—
Teeth as sound and white as alabaster,
Breath of sweet fragrance and lips of coral tint,
With flowing ringlets and glossy locks,
Luxuriant tresses dancing gracefully o'er the swan like neck.
No dark repulsive spots to mar the pleasing picture,
Or to cast dull shadows o'er beauty's mastery [illegible]

RADWAY'S MEDICATED SOAP

Composed of the most delicious, rare and fragrant gums,
Of extracts, oils, and costly essences—
Of flowers, roots, trees, and oriental plants,
Possessing wondrous virtues o'er skin diseases.

TO THE COMPLEXION IT IMPARTS BEAUTY

By cleansing the skin from all eruptive matter,
Makes clean the pores, gives action to the capillaries,
By which all poisonous humors are ejected,—
And a healthy action to the skin restored,
To the teeth it gives whiteness and prevents decay,
It makes the skin soft, sweet and smooth,
Transforms the most repulsive and disfigured visage,—
To a clear and beautiful complexion.

RADWAY'S CIRCASSIAN BALM

Imparts nutriment to the hair,—
Makes it strong, glossy, rich and luxuriant,
Cleanses the scalp from dandruff,—gives action to the bulbs,
Fastens the hair upon the scalp, and forces it to grow—
Like guano to a barren soil, it makes it rich and productive.
To dress the hair, make it smooth and glossy,—
Strong and beautiful &c

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, AND all diseases arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c. Sudden flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and great Depression of Spirits, CAN BE EFFECTUALLY CURED BY DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN

BITTERS,
Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson,
AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
120 Arch st. Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.
These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain and pleasant.

The Editor said, Dec 22d. "Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor, a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use."

SCOTT'S WEEKLY,

One of the best literary papers published, said, August 25 "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty, as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitution will find these Bitters advantageous to health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

The Daily Sun says:—"It is one of the best medicines of the age for Jaundice and Liver Complaint."

Neal's Gazette says:—"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters we know to be an excellent article, fulfilling in every respect what is claimed for it by the advertiser."

The Evening Bulletin says:—"The celebrated German Bitters are said to be an invaluable remedy for Jaundice, Dyspepsia, and Nervous Complaints."

The Daily News, July 21, says:—"A Medicine"—We speak knowingly of Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters when we say it is a blessing of this age, and in diseases of the biliary, digestive and nervous systems it has not, we think, an equal. It is a vegetable preparation, and made without alcohol, and to all invalids we should recommend it as worthy of their confidence."

The Dispatch says:—"As a medicine for Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Nervous Debility, and Dyspepsia, it has been found invaluable, effecting cures, and thoroughly eradicating disease, when all other medicines have failed."

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt, after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver—it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to Females or Infants with safety and reliable benefit, at any time.

LOOK WELL TO THE MARKS OF THE GENUINE.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and the name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

A Word of Caution to the Public!

Dealers in Pain Killer are cautioned against buying or selling a spurious article of Pain Killer, manufactured by White & Co, of Buffalo which is a worthless imitation and the pamphlets a "RANK FORGERY" which will appear by comparing them with the Genuine. The certificates are copied verbatim. The proprietor of the Genuine Perry Davis Pain Killer will prosecute any person, engaged in selling this spurious article, and is determined to protect himself and the public from this infamous fraud. Many unprincipled persons, to deceive the public, and for the sake of gain, have applied the name Pain Killer or something similar to their own compounds such as Pain Destroyer, Pain killing Compound, a real Pain killer, &c &c all of which have been got up on the reputation of Perry Davis' Pain Killer. The public are cautioned against these mixtures.

THE GREAT REMEDY

FOR
PILES, HABITUAL COSTIVENESS,
FEMALE COMPLAINTS,
Nervous Debility,
DYSPEPSIA,
OR
Loss of Appetite.

THE CONSTANT USE OF PHYSIC FOR THE ABOVE-NAMED COMPLAINTS, IS INJUDICIOUS AND DANGEROUS:

This any Physician will tell you—The more physic used, the more it requires—at last the tone and action of the bowels are destroyed, and the patient becomes afflicted with numerous kinds of nervous disorders.

The Genuine DR. TOWNSEND'S Sarsaparilla, has never failed in a single instance of curing the Piles and Costiveness, which to Females, is the great cause of those complaints which consume their strength, waste their Nervous energy, and enfeeble the whole Constitution. Mental Weakness is consequent upon physical prostration.

This Medicine acts as a simple, but powerful Tonic. It checks the tendency to exhaustion, allays NERVOUS EXCITEMENT, and reanimates the Whole Body with New Life.

RENOVATES THE BLOOD,

Dr JAMES R. CHILTON,

The most celebrated Chemist in the United States, has had charge of the Manufactory for more than a year, and has made many important improvements in the Medicine—from one to two teaspoonfuls of the Improved Sarsaparilla, is all that is required for a dose, to act as a mild Alterative and Tonic.

Beware of Counterfeits.

Dr Chilton's Certificate, printed on green paper, will be found on every bottle prepared since February, 1850, as well as Dr. S. P. Townsend's signature, on steel plate label on the outside wrapper.
